

DU is for you!

For I have given you an example,
that you also should do
just as I have done...
John 13:15

Being a student isn't easy, is it? Classes, schedules, homework, and assignments require a lot of effort. It is even more difficult when we are trying to fit in and have to deal with our different friends, classmates, and teachers who may not believe the same things that we do.

Being a Christian is difficult too, isn't it? So many things on the Internet, TV, in the Movies, and Music are not good, but they have an impact on us and our friends. Temptations all around us!

How do we deal with it all? What can I say or do that will let me be who I am and still be pleasing to God? I call myself a Christian, but am I being a true follower of Christ?

Discipleship University...

was created to help you with that very dilemma. DU wants to give you the knowledge, skills, and resources to help you in your Christian walk.

Learn how to deal with everyday issues and problems, get answers to questions about true New Testament Christianity, and find out what it means when Jesus said "I have given you an example."

WE HOPE YOU WILL JOIN US!

Dinner (provided)

7:00 pm – Orientation

7:15 pm – Keynote Address

Christian Philosophy 101: Sam Dilbeck
What's so great about the Bible? Revealing the superiority of the Christian Worldview. The decisions we make are based upon our own worldview. How can we know what is right or wrong? Are all religious ideas of equal value? Does any one religion have all the truth? These questions and more will be answered as we examine the great influence the Bible has had in the world, its system of ethics, its literary value, and its marks of inspiration. This class will also examine various world views that challenge the Christian faith. It will also explore the biblical perspective of economics, ethics, sociology and psychology. This course will help students who are seeking to make a greater impact for Jesus Christ in today's world.

SATURDAY, JULY 30TH (CONTINUED)

10:15 am – Breakout Sessions

Track 1 – Salvation 101: Mike Bonner

What must I do to be saved and why are there differing responses to this question? What does the Bible teach about salvation and in what ways can I share these truths with my friends? Leading our friends to Jesus can sometimes be challenging. One might ask, “Where do I start? How can I interest my friends in a Bible study? What do I need to teach them? What Bible study methods are available that can serve as an aid in teaching my friends? How do I answer objections? What can I do to encourage someone to obey the gospel?” This class will examine the various types of evangelism, basic tenants of salvation, strategies for teaching, and how to refute false views about salvation.

Track 2 – Ecclesiology 101: Wayne Jones

The Church and Denominationalism. Have you ever wondered why there are so many churches? Where did they come from and how were they started? Is one church as good as another? This class will explore the nature and essence of the church of Jesus Christ, its falling away and restoration, and what has happened since the establishment of the church.

Track 3 – Christology 101: Bill Burk

What's so great about Jesus? Who is Jesus and how is His life relevant? What makes Jesus a great friend? How can Jesus help us in dealing with our own personal relationships as we face criticism, jealousy, gossip, peer pressure? How do I fit in while maintaining my Christian virtues? This class will help us realize that a positive response to Jesus' example will lead to positive, fruitful relationships.
